Ten and twenty bushel lots, 10 cents per bushel. I will guarantee this coal to be a good as any coal brought to this city there is no Bly Muddy coal in this market that comes from or near Carterville. Below I give in tull letter of proof from manager West, of Carterville Coal Company: CARTERVILL, ILL., Aug. 15, 1891. H. L. Hunze.

Cape Girardeau, Mo. DEAR SIE:-Replying to yours of : Notary Public .-: the 13th about coal have to say that the Brush Mines has not the Big Muddy coal. That special brand of coal being mined in and about Murphysboro, only about 20 miles from here. Yours truly. C. E. WEST.

Manager. The man Brush is supplying the dealers here. I do not claim that the Carterville coal is a bad coal, as it is a fair steam coal, but do claim that it is no coal like the Big Muddy for domestic or steam use.
